

THE MURRAY HILL AVENUE HISTORIC DISTRICT

Rus in Urbe—
“A bit of country in the city”

Dedicated to

John Duff, Sr.

1915-1991

Assistant Attorney General for the State of Pennsylvania, 1971-1979 and dedicated Murray Hill Avenue resident.

*Your effort to save the street thirty years ago
inspires a new generation of stewards to carry on your vision for preserving the special qualities of Murray Hill Avenue.*

“The history of every country begins in the heart of a man or a woman”

—Willa Cather, from “O Pioneers!” written in 1913 on Murray Hill Avenue

Willa Cather

Cather's house at 1180 Murray Hill

Photo from Pittsburgh's Landmark Architecture: the Historic Buildings of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County, by Walter Kidney, Pittsburgh History & Landmarks Foundation, 1997, p. 196. Photo by Jim Judkis.