Promise Award 2009: Dawn R. Webb Turner

The Young Preservationists Association of Pittsburgh has selected Dawn R. Webb Turner to be the 2009 Promise Award winner.

Ms. Webb Turner's work with YPA over the past year as a volunteer to develop the Pittsburgh region's first African American history tourguide, as well as her efforts to preserve the National Negro Opera Company first home, and her extensive experience, education, and community involvement makes her an ideal awardee. Ms. Webb Turner is currently a third-grade teacher at Pittsburgh Faison Arts Academy in Pittsburgh's Homewood neighborhood.

A Pittsburgh native, Ms. Webb Turner is a graduate of Westinghouse High School. She received undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Pittsburgh, graduating Cum Laude.
